A JOURNEY FOR THE SENSES: SPA RESORT CASINO AND INDIAN CANYONS OFFER HIKING & SPA DEAL

PALM SPRINGS, CA (March 16, 2009) – Guests who visit Indian Canyons hiking trails on the Agua Caliente Indian reservation in Palm Springs, can now receive 15% off services at The Spa at Spa Resort Casino by showing their Canyons' admission receipt.

Both properties are owned and operated by the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians, and like the hot springs they have in common, now provide a synergistic way to relax.

The Canyons are famous for their magnificent beauty and the rich contrast between dry desert rock and lush palm oases nurtured by meandering spring-fed streams. The history of the Agua Caliente Tribe is firmly rooted in these canyons, as park rangers happily explain to visitors who take part in their daily guided tours.

Just a few miles to the north, The Spa at Spa Resort Casino offers a more contemporary piece of Tribal history. Its hot springs (for which The Spa is famous and after which the city of Palm Springs is named) have drawn visitors to the area since the late 1800s.

The Spa's signature experience is the "Taking of the Waters," which includes steam, sauna and Eucalyptus inhalation followed by a soak in the natural hot springs that percolate directly into the facility.

A complimentary session of Taking of the Waters is now offered as part of The Spa's Magic of Minerals Spring Specials. These fantastic treatments offer 25 or 50 minutes of pure bliss for just $69 or $99 and are available now through May 31st.

For more information on the Indian Canyons / Spa discount, call The Spa at 760-778-1772.
