DIANE SCHUUR & BOBBY CALDWELL—September 12 • 8:00pm; Tickets: $35, $25

Vocalist/pianist Diane Schuur is as eclectic as she is brilliant. A longtime disciple of Dinah Washington and other legendary jazz singers of the '40s and '50s, Schuur has built a stellar career by embracing not only the jazz of her parents' generation, but also the pop music of her own youth during the late 1950s and '60s. In a recording career that spans nearly three decades – and includes two Grammy® Awards and three Grammy® nominations – Schuur's music has explored nearly every corner of the 20th century American musical landscape.

Bobby Caldwell's career has spanned three decades, during which time he has released 13 albums and 4 singles. Voted "Best International Artist" in Japan (the equivalent of a Grammy® here in the US), Bobby enjoys a great deal of popularity around the world, as well as a significant fan base in the US. His most well-known song What You Won't Do for Love came as a result of pressure from his record label to create a "hit." It was quickly penned by Bobby and went on to become an international success.
