Rancho Mirage, Ca (May 5, 2008) – This Friday and Saturday night, award-winning songwriter and keyboardist for the legendary rock band Journey will perform live at The Lounge at Agua Caliente Casino • Resort • Spa in Rancho Mirage.

Journey band member Jonathan Cain will play Journey favorites with the casino's popular house band, Mischief, which is led by Cain's brother Tommy "Mugs" Cain.

Jonathan Cain not only gained notoriety as part of the band Journey, but he is also an accomplished musician and songwriter in his own right. He has received two of the most prestigious BMI songwriter awards - "Most Performed Song of the Year," for over two million or more radio plays with songs "Open Arms" and "Who's Cryin' Now." Journey's "Greatest Hits" received the "Diamond Award" for sales of ten million and the band has sold 60 million albums with a string of top ten singles accounting for over two decades of music played on the radio.

As a songwriter, Cain has written songs recorded by Michael Bolton, Sammy Hagar, Kenny Rogers, the band Heart, Greg Allman, Conway Twitty, The Oak Ridge Boys, Colin Raye, Lorrie Morgan, Maria Carey, Australian singer Jimmy Barnes and Peter Frampton. As a producer he's worked with Michael Bolton, Journey's guitarist Neal Schon and most recently wrote and co-wrote most of the songs on the new Journey CD "Generations". He's also produced seven of his own solo albums - "Back To The Innocence" and "Anthology", his debut albums as a singer songwriter, "Piano with a View", "Body Language", "For A Lifetime", "Namaste", "Animated Movie Love Songs" and most recently "Bare Bones", which are all instrumental piano albums of smooth jazz and new age genre.
