PALM SPRINGS, CA (July 30, 2007) – The Steakhouse restaurants at Agua Caliente Casino in Rancho Mirage and Spa Resort Casino in Palm Springs have each been honored with this year's "Wine Spectator Award for Excellence."

The annual awards recognize outstanding wine programs that offer what Wine Spectator calls a "well-chosen selection of quality [wine] producers, along with a thematic match to the menu in both price and style."

It is the third consecutive "Wine Spectator Award for Excellence" received by The Steakhouse at Spa Resort Casino, which offers 295 varieties and an inventory of over 2,700 bottles of wine.

The Steakhouse at Agua Caliente Casino garnered its first award this year, offering guests 265 varieties and an inventory of 2,700 as well.

Both restaurants' strengths were in California varietals.
