Since his 1963 television appearance on "The Jackie Gleason Show" Pat has appeared on many stages, from comedy clubs to major theaters, including the legendary Copacabana, Westbury Music Theater, Trump Castle, Caesars Palace, and the MGM Grand Hotel. Rick Michel doesn't impersonate Frank; he delivers a performance that expresses the spirit, passion and joy of Frank Sinatra and his music. Daily Variety called Rick Michel "the closest thing to Frank we have ever heard". That's because Rick has been singing Sinatra's music since he was a teenager and performing it live on stage with big bands for over twenty years.
